EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jeffrey Sopko on 6-15-2009.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

- Claim 4 has been amended as follows:

Claim 4 (currently amended): Method according to Claim 1, wherein, in the standby mode, the gas is heated up to a temperature above 25°C, ~~preferably between 30°C and 40°C~~, and thereafter is maintained at essentially this temperature in the continued standby mode and after the UV light source (22) has been lit up.

- The following claim has been added:

Claim 10 (new): Method according to Claim 1, wherein the gas is heated up to a temperature between 30°C and 40°C.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
- The closest cited art—U.S. Pat. Nos. 6,673,250; 6,461,520; 5,324,423; and 5,230,792—fail to anticipate or render obvious, alone or in any proper combination, the step of heating up the gas of the UV light source by a heat-generating element arranged outside of the UV light source—in combination with all the other limitations in the method of claim 1. The aforementioned closed cited art also fails to disclose the heat generating element for heating up the gas of the light that is arranged outside the UV light source—in combination with all the other limitations of claim 5. In the aforementioned prior art, starting circuits cause the filaments inside the UV light source to heat up the gas before activating light up of the UV light source.
  - The WO 96/33135 mentioned in the specification has been cited on the attached form 892.
  - It was agreed that claim 4 would be amended to correct for problems of indefiniteness.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mr. Terry K. Cecil whose telephone number is (571) 272-1138. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00a-4:30p M-F..

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Duane Smith can be reached on (571) 272-1166. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
